

Mohana Walambe, a physician with specializations in Ophthalmology and Industrial Medicine, is also a Certified Tumor Registrar, a Reiki Master, Yoga teacher and a trained Hospice Volunteer. She has volunteered as an Eye Surgeon for Lions International having performed, for free, eye-surgeries on over 1000 needy and poor people in rural India. Mohana can converse in 6 Indian languages. She joined MAIFS Board over 5 years ago, and her main interests are in MAIFS Outreach program. In 2004, U.S. President George W. Bush, recognized Mohana for her volunteer service for the terminally ill, here in Michigan, by awarding her the President's Volunteer Service Award.